The April meeting's program featured Katherine Hamilton-Smith discussing the value and importance of picture post-cards. The program was educational, interesting and entertaining for all.

The speaker commented on the quantity, value and the quality of the KHS's postcard collection.

Thanks,
Katherine.

KHS board member Jean Klock (far right) is also on the DeKalb County History Center board and participated in the ground-breaking ceremony in August 2018,. The Center, including the Joiner History Room, is located at 1730 N. Main St., Sycamore, and is now open for viewing and research.
